

Teaching and Exam procedures on Holidays and Fasts

- Students observing the listed holidays are permitted to be absent from classes on the following dates, in accordance with section item 6.2.1 in the Teaching Procedures.
- Students who are members of the religions listed and who are unable to take a final exam that is scheduled on a fast day, will be provided with a make-up exam, in accordance to section 7.4.2 in the Teaching Procedures.

Muslim Holidays¹

Eid al-Adha	11.08.2019 – 15.08.2019	No classes or exams are held in the first day.
New Year (1 Muharram)	11.09.2018	(might be a day earlier or after)
Birthday of the Prophet Muhammad	20.11.2018
Eid al-Fitr (conclusion of Ramadan)	4.06.2019 -05.06.2019

Druze Holidays¹

Eid al-Adha	11.08.2019– 15.08.2019	No classes or exams are held in the first day.
Eid al-Khadir	25.01.2019
Nabi Shu'ayb	25.04.2019 – 28.04.2019

Christian Holidays

	Catholic/ Protestant	Orthodox	Armenian
Christmas	25.12.2018*	07.01.2019	19.01.2019	No classes or exams are held
New Year	01.01.2019	14.01.2019	14.01.2019
Easter	21.04.2019	15.04.2019	28.04.2019

Fasts

Tzom Gedaliah	02.10.2018
10 B'Tevet	18.12.2018
Ta'anit Esther ²	20.03.2019
Ramadan ¹	5.05.2019-4.06.2019
17 B'Tammuz	21.07.2019
9 B'Av	11.08.2019 (university is closed)

Ethiopian Jews:

Sigd	7.11.2018
------	-----------

Comments:

1. Dates of Muslim and Druze holidays may differ by one or two days from the dates shown. Please enquire with The Equal opportunities Unit for Arab Students, Dean of Students Office (02-588-0263) as to the exact dates before each holiday.
2. Jewish students studying in Jerusalem but residing elsewhere are allowed to be absent from classes from 4:00 PM on this date.