

Teaching and Exam Procedures on Holidays and Fasts- Academic Year 2022-23

*

- Students observing the listed holidays are permitted to be absent from classes on the following dates, in accordance with section item 6.2.1 in the Teaching Procedures.
- Students who are members of the religions listed and who are unable to take a final exam that is scheduled on a fast day or Holiday, will be provided with a make-up exam, in accordance with section 7.4.2 in the Teaching Procedures.

Muslim Holidays¹

Birthday of the Prophet Muhammad	08.10.2022
Eid al-Fitr (End of Ramadan)	20-23.04.2023	No exams will be held On 23.4.23 no lessons or exams will be held
Eid al-Adha	28.06-2.07.2023	On 30.6.23 no lessons or exams will be held
New Year (1 Muharram)	19.07.2023

Druze Holidays¹

Eid al-Khadir	25.01.2023
Nabi Shu'ayb	24-27.04.2023
Eid al-Adha	28.06-2.07.2023	On 30.6.23 no lessons or exams will be held

Christian Holidays

	Catholic/ Protestant	Orthodox	Armenian
Christmas	25.12.2022*	07.01.2023	19.01.2023	* No lessons or exams will be held
New Year	01.01.2023	14.01.2023	14.01.2023
Easter	09.04.2023	16.04.2023	16.04.2023

Ethiopian Jews

Sigd	29 B'Cheshvan 23.11.2022
------	---------------------------------

Fasts

Tzom Gedaliah	28.09.2022
10 B'Tevet	03.01.2023
Ta'anit Esther	06.03.2023	Jewish students studying in Jerusalem but residing elsewhere are allowed to be absent from classes from 4:00 PM on this date.
Ramadan¹	22.3-20.04.2023
17 B'Tammuz	06.07.2023
9 B'Av	27.07.2023	The university is closed

Comments:

1. Dates of Muslim and Druze holidays may differ by one or two days from the dates shown. Please enquire with The Equal Opportunities Unit for Arab Students, Dean of Students Office (02-588-0263) as to the exact dates before each holiday